

People on the move

The Denver Post

Posted: 10/20/2009 01:00:00 AM MDT

Candance Sulzbach of the School of Mines was named Outstanding Faculty Advisor.

SOCIETY OF WOMEN ENGINEERS: Named Candace Sulzbach, a Colorado School of Mines lecturer, the 2009 Outstanding Faculty Advisor. Sulzbach was recognized for outstanding contributions to engineering education and for mentoring and advising engineering students.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF EMERGENCY PHYSICIANS: Dr. Ernest E. Moore, chief of surgery and trauma services at Denver Health, received an honorary membership for his groundbreaking work with emergency-medicine physicians.

SHERMAN & HOWARD: Announced that Vance Knapp, formerly special counsel with Rothgerber Johnson & Lyons, has joined the firm as a member in the labor and employment practice.

INTERWEAVE: Promoted Tricia Waddell to editorial director of the yarn group. Waddell replaces Marilyn Murphy, who is retiring.

HANDYMAN MATTERS FRANCHISE CORP.: Announced that Curtis Wolff will serve as president.

INNOVATIVE REAL ESTATE: Added Bob Kennedy as a broker.

LUCAS GROUP ACCOUNTING & FINANCE EXECUTIVE SEARCH: Recently added Michelle Parker, a senior executive recruiter, to the Denver team.

JEFFERSON COUNTY ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS: Michael Welk of Your Castle Real Estate was installed as the 66th chairman of the board. Robin Lucy, also of Your Castle Real Estate, was named chairman-elect; and Steve Danyliw, Danyliw and Associates, is corporate secretary. New directors are Matt Cohen, Amanda DiVito, Lincoln Gill, Kelly Murphy, Karen Nichols, Chad Ochs ner, Dave Pike, Anthony Rael, Toni Rice, Annie Schneider, Jim Smith and Sue Vencil.

RYAN: Appointed Lukas Krause as a director in the Denver office and Landon Julius as a team leader.